To whom it may concern:

This is to confirm that Laleh Seyyed-Kalantari was offered but declined the CIHR Banting Postdoctoral Fellowships award in the 2021-22 competition.

The award was offered in the form of a taxable stipend in the amount of $70,000.00 per annum for a period of two years. The application was endorsed by The Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Banting Postdoctoral Fellowships is a program of the Government of Canada that provides funding to the very best postdoctoral applicants, both nationally and internationally, who will positively contribute to the country’s economic, social and research-based growth.

The objective of the Banting Postdoctoral Fellowships program is to:

- attract and retain top-tier postdoctoral talent, both nationally and internationally,
- develop their leadership potential, and
- position them for success as research leaders of tomorrow.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions.
